

SOFTWARE QUALITY ASSURANCE COMMUNITY (SQAC) : CODE OF CONDUCT

This Code of Conduct serves as the foundation for how we function as a professional student community. It reflects our commitment to ethical behaviour, accountability, teamwork, and excellence in the club.

All members are expected to uphold these standards at all times.

Applicability

This Code applies to every member of SQAC, irrespective of role or designation. Each member is responsible for understanding and adhering to these guidelines. Any violation may lead to disciplinary action, including suspension or termination of membership.

1. Representation & Public Image

The reputation of SQAC is built on the conduct of its members.

Members must always portray the community in a respectful, responsible, and positive manner—both within and outside the club. Any public communication involving SQAC must reflect professionalism and integrity.

2. Responsibility & Timeliness

Deadlines are framed keeping academic responsibilities in mind.

- Members are expected to complete all assigned tasks within the stipulated time.
- If a delay is anticipated, prior intimation and approval for an extension is mandatory.

3. Attendance & Meetings

Active participation in meetings is essential for collaboration and growth.

- Attendance is expected unless a genuine reason prevents participation.
- In case of absence, members must inform the respective authority in the following order: Associate → Domain Lead → Technical/Corporate Lead → Joint Secretary → Secretary.

4. Initiative & Participation

The strength of SQAC lies in proactive members.

Every member is expected to contribute actively to planning, promotions, execution of events, and overall functioning of the club.

5. Communication Guidelines

- All official communication must take place only through channels approved by the Core Committee.
- Personal direct messages must not be used for official SQAC work, except when contacting the Board if required.
- Members are encouraged to clarify doubts openly in designated communication groups. If further guidance is needed, they may contact the assigned Associate or Lead.
- All formal communication must be via official institutional email IDs only.
- Official communication will be sent exclusively from:
 - sqac.club@gmail.com
 - sqacleads@gmail.com
 - Official SQAC SRM email accounts
- Any club-related message from personal email IDs must be disregarded.

6. Confidentiality & Data Protection

- Members must strictly safeguard all sensitive and internal information of SQAC.
- Sharing or leaking any form of official data—even with friends, or peers—is strictly prohibited and may lead to severe disciplinary actions.
- Confidentiality obligations remain applicable even after a member exits SQAC.

7. Handover of Assets & Access

Upon leaving SQAC, whether voluntarily or due to removal:

- All digital access, subscriptions, credentials, documents, and materials provided by the community must be returned immediately.
- Any confidential data in personal possession must be permanently deleted.
- Confidentiality policies remain enforceable even after exit.

8. Usage of SQAC Merchandise & Materials

- SQAC merchandise such as ID cards, t-shirts, lanyards, or badges may only be used by currently active members.
- Alumni or former members are strictly prohibited from using or displaying SQAC merchandise publicly.
- Members must ensure responsible handling of club property and must not provide it to unauthorized individuals.
- When no longer needed, all items must be stored safely or disposed of privately.

9. Involvement in Other Organizations

Members may engage with multiple organizations provided that:

- Their responsibilities towards SQAC are fulfilled without delay or compromise.
- Internal information, strategies, and data of SQAC remain strictly confidential.

10. Intellectual Property Rights

All creative, technical, financial, or strategic work developed during involvement with SQAC shall remain the sole intellectual property of the community.

SQAC retains exclusive rights over the usage, publication, or distribution of such work.

11. Inactivity & Performance Monitoring

A member who fails to complete assigned tasks three consecutive times without valid reason or prior notice shall be subject to disciplinary review by the Secretary or Joint Secretary.

12. Resignation Procedure

A member intending to resign must submit a formal notice to their respective Domain Lead at least one week in advance. During this period, the member must:

- Complete all pending responsibilities.
- Assist in knowledge transfer and transition where required.

SOFTWARE QUALITY ASSURANCE COMMUNITY (SQAC) : CODE OF CONDUCT

Our Commitment

The Software Quality Assurance Community is committed to sustained growth, excellence, and professionalism. While no Code can anticipate every scenario, we rely on our members to exercise sound judgment and act in alignment with the principles of respect, discipline, transparency, and collaboration.

Every SQAC member is expected to uphold both the letter and the spirit of this Code.

Non-Compliance & Reporting

Any violation of this Code of Conduct will be formally reported to the SQAC Club Coordinator Faculty as well as to the concerned academic department for necessary review and appropriate action.
